

Steinar Høeg holds the position as Director External Affairs Europe in AstraZeneca since 2010. Before that Steinar Høeg was Marketing Company President for Astra and later AstraZeneca in Norway, Sweden and in the Nordics and a member of the European Management Team. Steinar Høeg has a long track record with trade associations being a member on the Board of the Norwegian Trade association, LMI, in the 90's and since 2000 chairing the Swedish trade association for research based pharmaceutical companies, LIF. He is also representing LIF at the Board of Confederation of Swedish Enterprises. In June this year Steinar Høeg was elected to the Board of the Norwegian based biotech company Lytix Biopharma AS. Steinar Høeg holds a Bachelor Degree in Finance from University of Umeå in Sweden.