

Rasmus Jarlov

Minister for Industry, Business and Financial Affairs
The Danish Parliament

Biography

- Member of the Folketing for The Conservative Party in Greater Copenhagen greater constituency from June 18th 2015.
- Member of the Folketing for The Conservative Party in Greater Copenhagen greater constituency from September 1st 2010 to September 15th 2011.
- Temporary Member of the Folketing for The Conservative Party in Greater Copenhagen greater constituency from January 12th 2010 to August 31st 2010 (substitute for Charlotte Dyremose).
- Candidate for The Conservative Party in Lyngby nomination district from 2014.
- Candidate for The Conservative Party in Rødovre nomination district from 2014.
- Candidate for The Conservative Party in Inner city nomination district from 2010 to 2014.
- Candidate for The Conservative Party in Rødovre nomination district from 2007 to 2010.

Parliamentary career

Minister for Industry, Business and Financial Affairs from June 21st 2018.

Education and jobs

- M.Sc. Applied Economics and Finance, Copenhagen Business School, from 2001 to 2003.
- B.Sc., Copenhagen Business School, from 1998 to 2001.
- Officer of the Reserve, the Royal Danish Air Force, from 1996 to 1998.
- Founder and owner of Hamlet Tours since 2012

- Novo Nordisk A/S Corporate job rotation programme and middle manager in research council at, Novo Nordisk A/S, from 2004 to 2010.
- Speaker and external lecturer in finance, Copenhagen Business School, from 2003.

Affiliations

Member of Copenhagen City Council 2010-2015.

