

Dr. Julian Kirch as one of the core team for biocompatibility within the notified body Tuv Sued Product Service in Germany. Among else, he is responsible for evaluating design dossiers for high risk medical devices. Before joining a notified body, Dr. Julian Kirch worked in the development of cardiovascular medical devices and toxicology. He has a research background in toxicokinetics and is a trained biophysicist.