3 things important to Big Pharma when looking at the Nordics

1. World Leading Research

2. Culture of Innovation & Entrepreneurship

3. Strong Home Market
